This matter is before the court on the defendant Emily Clayton's unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [72]. Counsel needs additional time conduct plea negotiations. Counsel for co-defendants Taft Burttton and Daniel Lacy as well as the government have indicated they do not object to the continuance. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial [72] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, for all defendants, now set for December 4, 2023, is continued to February 5, 2024.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and February 5, 2024, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).

DATED: November 28, 2023.
